

ST. LOUIS CEMENTERY

NEW ORLEANS,
LOUISIANA

The cemetery is so popular because there is the grave of Marie Laveau. She was a healer, and she became known as the Voodoo Queen.

Today some visitors say they see Marie Laveau dressed in a red and white turband as she walks around the cemetery grounds and also say she is angry and likes to bother people that speak against voodoo in front of her. Another spooky citizen of the cemetery is a sailor named Henry Vignes.
