

THE NIGHT OF SCREAMS

Pedro and Juan were friends and they wanted to go camping. They planned the journey a "Toremurcillos". They had to run because it was getting dark. Near the river where they were going to camp. They heard screams and barking. They went to see what was happening. There was a skeleton stabbing a woman and her dog.

THE NIGHT OF SCREAMS

It is now dark and the moon is shining brightly.

of course.

They passed the journey a journey of a journey.

They had to go because it was getting dark.

Then the river when they were going to camp.

They had some and some.

They went to see what was happening.

There was a shadow of a shadow and the day.

The friends ran to seek help, because the dog, now a skeleton, was chasing them.

I help a girl kill the dog with her bow.

Together they went to call the police and their parents.

They wanted to go home.

The police never found any skeleton.
