Saint Candida's house is a traditional house in Benicarló. It's on Saint Candida street. It has got four floors and the stairs are very narrow.

In the first floor there are farm objects, a stable and a place to make wine.

We found a kitchen with a table and some chairs in the second floor.

In the third floor there is a bedroom and old clothes.

In the last floor there is a henhouse.

CONCLUSION

The excursion was very funny and interesting. We learned a lot about this traditional house.

If you like history, we recommend that you visit this important house of Benicarló.
